Presented by See Subiaco, LiveLighter Bonjour Perth Festival is back and the team is excited by the new and unique activities on this year's program!

The Festival team invites you to enjoy a day of French culture in the beautiful Market Square Park on Saturday 21 October, from 10am to 9pm.

For the first time, visitors will experience traditions, music, food and art in the new themed 'villages' that represent different regions from the French-speaking world.

Do not miss 'A Taste of Our French World', our inaugural gastronomic discovery trail, that will take you on a surprising tasting journey. Experiment with flavours from countries you have travelled to or are dreaming to visit! Book your ticket online or come to the Merchandising desk to get a last minute ticket (upon availability).

Kids can use their imagination at the free craft workshops, chase clues for the treasure hunt, burn their energy on the bouncy castles, try fencing or learn circus skills while you relax in the Wellness Area and enjoy the Festival with family and friends.

And of course, don't forget to register your French bulldog in the new parade or to try yourself the LiveLighter Parisian Waiters' Race for a laugh and lots of pride as you take home the winning prizes.

Thanks to our Sponsors and Partners, for helping us making it happen! And a big thanks to our wonderful team of volunteers who work hard all year long and on the day to bring you such a wonderful event!

THE STORY OF THE FRENCH EXPLORERS AND THE WESTERN AUSTRALIAN COAST

French explorers were sailing the coast of WA in the 1700s at the same time as the British. They mapped the coastline and gave their names to landmarks still in existence today. To explore this history, the Western Australian Museum is putting together the 'French Connection Program', two exhibitions about the voyages of French explorers Nicolas Baudin and Louis-Claude De Freycinet.

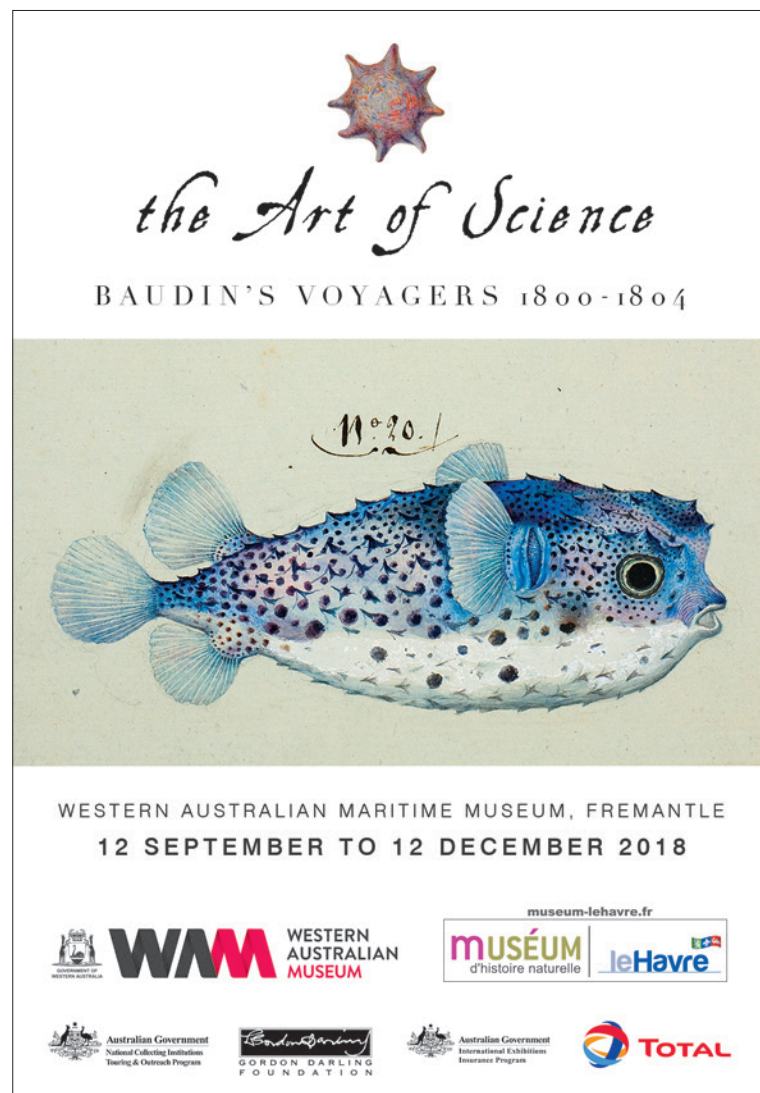

These exhibitions are just part of the work the WA Museum is doing to bring the heritage and history of the State to the public. As a Festival sponsor, the WA Museum will present several events in the program.

4 WA Museum Kids Village is the fun centre of the Festival. Kids can enjoy activities, workshops and play around the inflatable castle while learning more about nature, marine archaeology and the French influence on WA history.

Curator and maritime archaeologist at the WA Maritime Museum, Nicolas Bigourdan, who is of French origin, will be at the Festival to talk about his research on the history of French exploration in Australia. He is the Coordinator of the French Connection Program which opens in September 2018 at the WA Maritime Museum in Fremantle.

In keeping with the French explorer theme, Perth French Theatre will perform the story of Rose De Freycinet, a French woman who, over 200 years ago, explored the Australian coast with her husband, Louis-Claude de Freycinet. Developed in collaboration with the WA Museum, this performance is sure to delight the audience.

“THE VILLAGES” BY STELLA SULAK DECORS

Stella Sulak directing Perth French Theatre.

As they enter the Festival space, Perth's French culture enthusiasts will be greeted with the sight of five themed villages dotted across the smooth green lawn of Market Square Park. This new concept will expose the audience to the diverse cultures that make up French culture.

The themes — Rustic, Alpine, Mediterranean, Urban and Creole — are brought to life with the design and decorating talents of Stella Sulak, Director of Perth French Theatre, and her dedicated team of volunteers.

Nestled around their own central square, the village stalls will offer food, drink, kids activities and entertainment associated with their theme. Festival goers can immerse themselves in the atmosphere of an Alpine village surrounded by snow-covered cottages while eating 'saucisson' and in the next moment enjoy exotic dishes in the Creole village.

In the Urban village the crowds will count down the end of the day as the Eiffel Tower bursts into light.

There will also be other areas in the park that focus on art (fine arts, visual arts, theatre, dance, literature), children, and well-being.

Find more about each village on LiveLighter Bonjour Perth website:
www.bonjourperth.com.au

Domitille Bastit and Jason St Martin, village builders.

CANAPÉS SURPRISE HAPPENING IN SUBI

Would you have a shower under a tree? Could you drink a cup of tea in the middle of the road? Strange surprises are afoot in the streets of Subiaco as large objects appear and then disappear in the most unexpected places. On October 6 and 7, a French-Australian theatre troupe will arrive in town to bring these happenings to life. On the Friday afternoon the action will be on Rokeby Road; on Saturday shoppers at the Subi Markets will be in for a treat.

Stella Sulak collaborates with Petro Vouris, Alex Abbot, Ea Sulak, WAAPA graduates and her amazing group of amateur actors to create two moving performances. The curious and the brave have the best seat! Grab your courage and venture out to the streets of Subiaco.

BISTRO FELIX, SUBIACO

The gorgeous interior of Bistro Felix.

As diners settle at dark wood tables and flick crisp white serviettes over their knees, Bistro Felix sets the scene for an experience in European food with an emphasis on classic French cuisine. Since opening in 2007, restaurateur Jeremy Cariss has offered Perth diners a chance to enjoy a sophisticated yet affordable menu.

French art deco vintage posters from the 1930s adorn the walls and in their theatrical presence diners can choose from an impressive menu that includes favourites such as duck confit, steak tartare, 'boeuf bourguignon' and braised lamb. Regulars will advise you to try the Chocolate Soufflé but it is also recommended that you indulge in the nutty warmth of a Frangelico affogato, an Italian delight. The wild berry crumble cheesecake with Chantilly cream will also entice.

The restaurant's extensive range of local and international wines is largely due to generous contributions from Cariss' own cellar. A wide range of cognacs is also available. Tastings are organised every week with a daily happy hour 4-6pm.

This year Bistro Felix won the European Excellence Award for its cuisine.

Open Monday to Saturday, 11am - late

KIDS ACTIVITIES

Giant games, table soccer, circus and drumming workshops, face painting and French rhymes are just some of the great activities at the Bonjour Perth Festival.

The WA Museum Kids Village is an enormous inflatable castle, the centre of fun, where kids can dress up in costumes of famous French citizens and super heroes then hop into a photo booth for a souvenir of the day. Performances for the kids include puppet shows, magic and a snippet of the French classic The Little Prince performed by Perth French Theatre.

Each village will have free craft activities for the kids and parents to enjoy. A highlight is the treasure hunt through the villages with many challenges and great prizes. Another way to learn more about the French navigators. Just remember to bring a pen!

DEAR EXPLORER,

In 1818, after a year at sea, the French Explorer Louis de Freycinet and his wife Rose arrived in Shark Bay (Australia). But during the voyage, the ship got wrecked, and they lost a very important and valuable treasure, which was never to be seen again. Over the years, many other explorers and family members have attempted to find this lost treasure but never succeeded. This most important task now falls upon you and you alone. We trust your abilities to recover the lost treasure and return it to its rightful place.

BLOODY FRENCH, SUBIACO

Paris-born chef, Boubakar Barrie, opened his restaurant, Bloody French, in 2016, riding the wave of culinary revival in Subiaco. After training as a chef in the French tradition at the École de Paris des Métiers de la Table, Boubakar worked at the Hilton. He decided to improve his English and left for London to work in a restaurant with an English team. After 11 years in London, he left the UK for Australia after meeting his wife, an air hostess from Perth.

Classic French dishes such as raclette, bouillabaisse and cassoulet await diners in the cozy surrounds of Bloody French. Apparently the bouillabaisse is the one that seduces Australian diners to be fans of French cuisine. With a largely French-speaking team, you will have a range of French music as a backdrop to your meal.

Open Monday to Sunday, from 11.30am until 9pm

MEEKA, SUBIACO

Meeka is a warm embrace between the deep flavours of middle eastern spices and the adventurous spirit of Australia. Leah Clarke and her mother, Faye Clarke, opened Meeka ten years ago at the top of Rokeby Road, and the restaurant's winning fusion cuisine — Moroccan, Lebanese and Turkish with a modern Australian twist — is still going strong.

Authenticity is paramount at Meeka and is reflected in a menu inspired by Leah's extensive travels in the Middle-East. Although Faye has retired to Paris, she stills brings culinary inspiration to the restaurant from her travels around Europe, not to mention excellent additions to the wine list.

Most dishes are designed to be shared; a must as this food is just too good to keep to yourself. The tagine with lamb, extremely tender and slightly spicy, koftas and hummus are served in traditional dishes directly imported from Morocco.

The desserts arrive in a blaze of colour. Share a plate of the Apple Lemon Cardamon Meeka's food is an enticing, flavour-packed collision of Middle-Eastern cuisine and the Australian spirit.

Sour Cherry Doughnuts and for the gluten intolerant, the Dulce De Leche Panna Cotta with a Pumpkin Mousse ensures you don't miss out.

Meeka has won numerous state and national restaurant and catering awards 2016 including the Australia Wine List of the Year Award 2016.

Open Tuesday to Saturday, from 5pm until late.

RISKE ZÉRO

Risque Zéro are in Perth from Réunion Island, a French region in the midst of the Indian Ocean. Formed in 2004, Risque Zéro draws on the post-punk sound of Joy Division to create artful music inspired by the English romantic poet William Blake. With Xavier on vocals and guitar, Olivier on bass and Sebastian on drums, the trio offer an energetic experience scratched by sharp guitar riffs. A treat for this year's Bonjour Perth Festival.

The band is visiting Perth to promote their 2016 release 'No Country for poor men', as well as the CD 'Maudit Tangué #4 Indian Ocean Rock (2017)'. The Indian Ocean Rock compilation features bands from Réunion, Mauritius, Madagascar, South Africa, India and Western Australia.

Maudit Tangué, a Réunion rock label, not only promotes local bands but also fosters an underground rock network between the shores of Indian Ocean countries. This includes a series of festivals on the island and tours to neighbouring countries in the network.
